What Is Christian Light?

Christian Light is dedicated to the development and distribution of Christian materials to spread the Gospel and evangelize the lost; to edify, inspire, and build conviction in the saints; to strengthen families; to support the church; and to provide a Christian education curriculum for children and youth.

Christian Light was founded in 1969 as a nonprofit, tax-exempt, 501(c)(3) organization. A board of directors whose members represent different areas and church groups operates the ministry.

Christian Light is supported through the sale of literature and through contributions from concerned individuals and churches. An annual financial statement is available upon request.

School and Homeschool Curriculum

Christian Light produces high-quality curriculum for Christian schools and homeschools. For more information visit our website or call us.

Bookstore

At our bookstore, you'll find everything in the following pages and more—as well as a complete selection of school curriculum—at your fingertips. The bookstore is open Monday through Friday, 8:30-5:00. For more information, call the bookstore at (540) 236-3300. For driving directions to Christian Light, see page 115.

Come and Visit

Our headquarters are located in Harrisonburg, Virginia. Our facility houses printing presses and related equipment, editorial offices, and meeting areas. We welcome individuals and groups for tours.

Books From Other Publishers

All books we carry from other publishers are subject to the scrutiny of at least two reviewers and a three-member Book Review Committee. Some books do not have a direct spiritual message but are included because of their moral, educational, or reference value presented in harmony with Scriptural principles. Some books may have minor objectionable features but are included because of their overall value.

What We Believe

We believe that the Bible is the inspired Word of God, and that the New Testament is the final authority for the church and for the Christian.

We believe in the Genesis account of Creation and the fall of man. We believe in the Trinity, the Virgin Birth, salvation by faith in Christ, the soon return of our Lord, and the existence of Heaven and Hell.

We believe that to be saved, you must repent, believe, and receive Christ, the Son of God, as Lord and Saviour; that you must be born again and be made a new creature in Christ, created in His likeness, showing forth His virtues, and producing the good works that come as a result of His living in you.

Further, we believe that the New Testament teachings of simplicity and modesty apply to every area of our lives, including dress, appearance, possessions, and social and recreational activities. We believe that Christ must have control of every area of our lives and that when He controls us, others will know it.

We believe the church should observe practices ordained by the Lord and commanded by His apostles, including the Lord's Supper, baptism, feetwashing, the kiss of charity, the anointing with oil for healing, and the Christian woman's head covering. We believe that marriage is instituted by God, that believers should not marry unbelievers, and that the marriage union is indissoluble by man.

We believe that the Christian, though in the world, is not of the world. We are pilgrims and strangers, and as such, we follow the dictates and standards of our home country—Heaven. Thus we do not involve ourselves in the affairs of earthly governments. We do not retaliate or take revenge—we seek to return good for evil and to ever be ready to give of ourselves for others. And our goal is the same as our Lord's, "who would have all men to be saved."

Loyalty Test Romaine Stauffer

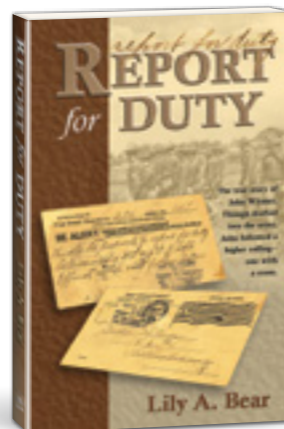

Christian watched uneasily as anti-British attitudes bubbled up in the American colonies. As rebellion progressed to outright war, Christian stood by as the new colonial army confiscated his wheat and cattle. But what would be the consequences of refusing to obey the new law requiring citizens to swear loyalty to the state? Based on historical characters, Loyalty Test describes the trials of a peaceful people in distressing times. A sequel to Hidden Riches.

Hidden Riches Romaine Stauffer

Many of us do not know the names of our ancestors who braved the Atlantic to come to North America. We forget the persecution they faced and how they risked their lives to reach the freedom we enjoy. Hidden Riches is the story of young Christian Burkholder, a real person, whose father decided to seek a better life in a new land. For juniors through adults.

Wartime Challenges

God's Secret Agent

Diane Yoder

Nicu wanted to serve God, but he had not anticipated an assignment full of danger and sleepless nights. Nicu constantly had to place his life in God's hands. He began to realize his unique position of taking precious cargo to his closed home country, as he witnessed miracle after miracle. A faith-strengthening story of how God's hand protected His secret agent time and again.

Aaron's Civil War

Romaine Stauffer

Aaron turned his back on his training and his mother's tears and enlisted to fight in the Civil War. But euphoria turned to misery and fear as the horrible realities of war brought him face-to-face with the enemy—and death. As Aaron looks for answers to the questions he can no longer avoid, he discovers the Civil War has become, for him, an intensely personal battle.

A Drop of Mercy

Becky McGurrian

"Is this what you want?" Heinrich asked, holding up his cider skin. The soldier's face lit up. Heinrich spat. "Not even a drop." He turned the skin upside-down and squeezed every last drop onto the ground. Heinrich walked away from the wounded soldier, but he could not get away from the wretchedness in his heart. Set in the American Revolution, A Drop of Mercy is the story of a young man finding his way—and finding hope—through the smoke and confusion of a war that crashed into his own backyard.

Missionary Stories

A Rainbow in the Mountains

compiled by Kathryn Troyer & Miriam Schrock

The mountains of Honduras are beautiful, but in the tiny houses clinging to the slopes live people with lost souls. This compilation of stories introduces you to some who were rescued. But mission work is not all glowing stories. The missionaries in these candid accounts endured disappointments, cultural adjustments, loneliness, robberies, and ordinary days where little seemed to be accomplished. These testimonies impress us with the deep needs of those in spiritual darkness. Though missionary life is challenging, the work is fulfilling and the rewards are eternal.

My Ways Are Higher

Maryann Martin

Ronnie and Maryann Martin answered God's call and moved to Honduras with their six children. Then Ronnie was killed in a hit-and-run accident. In this true story, Maryann describes how God led her through grief, uncertainty, and doubt to acceptance and gratitude. Her testimony is one of learning to cling to God's promise that "as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways."

Under God's Arrest

Ida B. Bontrager

James and Fannie brought their wild lives and trouble into their home. But then one day James and Fannie were arrested—by God. Determined to be as zealous for God as he had been for the devil, James sought to honor the Lord and for decades held evangelistic meetings all over the country. James's influence lives on in the churches and in the lives of those he touched. His story still challenges readers today.

No More Strangers

Mary June Glick

In the 1970s, life in a Creole village in Belize meant no electricity, no phone, and no hospitals nearby. But the Glick family fell in love with the country and its friendly people. They grew to love the Creole dialect, especially the phrase, "hope we be no more strangers." An excellent primer for anyone interested in missions.

Light From Heaven

Joseph Armstrong's father showed little concern for his wife and children. Work came first. Praise was a foreign language. All the while, he portrayed himself as flawlessly pious to those outside the family. But a devout mother bridged the gap—loving, teaching, and praying for her children. Her prayers were heard; Joseph's heavenly Father helped him rise above his circumstances to a life of purpose.

On December 25, 1901, a girl was born to the Miller family of Elkhart, Indiana. Her parents planned to call her Gertrude. But soon after her birth, the family canary—until that time silent—burst into song. Impressed, the child's father decided to name his child after the canary's "Christmas carol." So Gertrude became Christmas Carol.

Today, to Christian booklovers everywhere, the name Christmas Carol Kauffman means another good book.

For One Moment

Herbe Engelhardt is sucked into a swirling vortex of emotional confusion when his parents divorce. He is driven by insecurity and a hunger for something missing in his pseudo-religious training and Hitler's promises. Bitter and fighting a God he doesn't understand, Herbe meets a crisis, and in that moment, his destiny is determined. Based on the life of a boy who grew up in Nazi Germany.

What If I Stay?

Anne Gorman

Unwanted by her mother, Amara had been shuttled from one foster home to another as a child. Harsh treatment and rejection scarred her heart and made friendships difficult. Blessed with a caring husband and two delightful children, Amara wanted to be fine but knew she wasn't. Then a letter arrived from a man claiming to be her father. What If I Stay? is a fictional story of finding security in God's love, overcoming a victim mentality, and realizing that running from our hurts doesn't help.

Loreen Plett Zehr writes inspiring stories that show how God can bring help and hope even in difficult and desperate situations.

Still the Storm

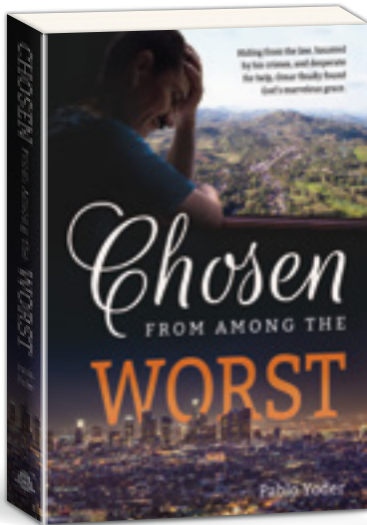

"You ask about this picture all the time, Tina!" Mom exclaimed as Tina pointed to the drawing of the Man on the cross. "I don't know why they did it to Him. His name is Jesus. Now stop asking!" Somberly, Tina stared at the picture. The Man had died there on the cross. But why? For sin? What did that mean?

Raised in an Old Colony Mennonite setting in Mexico, Tina faced many adversities, storms that threatened her quest for truth. Illiteracy. Abuse. Mockery. Drunkenness. Doubt. Tragedy. Would she ever find the One who holds the answers and stills the storms?

In the Shadow of Eternity

Rachael Lofgren

While Jakob Hutter is still remembered centuries later, little is known of his wife Trindl. A Tyrolean peasant woman, she suffered deeply because of her marriage to an Anabaptist leader. Not only did she leave her family to live as an outcast in the mountains, but she also lost her husband to martyrdom and her only child to the authorities. Was it possible for her to lose so much without losing faith in Christ too? A work of historical fiction.

Metamorphosis

Amber Shirk

As a college student, Amber embarked on an unexpected spiritual journey. Relating to five friends—two Muslim and two Christian students and a backpacking instructor—caused her to ponder new things. Amber began to wonder if she was truly obeying God's Word. The practical issue that caught her attention was modesty. As an experiment, she decided to wear an Amish dress to school for three months. Amber's journey from a contemporary college girl to a Mennonite woman is an encouraging testimony of God's faithfulness when we follow Him wholeheartedly.

Joey's Story

Ruth Ann Stelfox

Joey lied, swore, and fought. She smoked and shoplifted when she had half a chance. And she was only a child. Her mother was too sick to notice, her father too busy to mind. But behind the tough shell, Joey's heart ached and cried out for help. A loving God, already working in her life, heard and answered her cry. Joey's Story is the true, heart-wrenching account of Joanna Heger's childhood and youth. Though told discreetly, it is not a children's book.

The Gift of Life

A Fragile Heritage

Sheryl Leinbach

Wesley and Sheryl were stunned. Had the doctor really said their daughter was sick because they were Mennonites? The diagnosis of MSUD (maple syrup urine disease) changed everything for the Leinbach family. Wesley and Sheryl faced endless questions. Should they risk having more children? Should they pursue a liver transplant for Louisa? Combining one family's story with research on genetic disease, A Fragile Heritage traces the strands of heritage, faith, and mutation through generations and addresses questions about genetic mutations resulting from the overlapping ancestry of many Mennonites and Amish today.

Daddy on the Mend

Illustrated by Taya Taranenko and Alex Brover
Andrew stood stiffly beside Daddy's bed. Sharilyn stared with wide eyes from Mom's arms. Christopher clung to Mom's skirt, and Megan gripped Grandma's hand. Daddy opened his eyes. "God is taking care of me," he said. But his voice was not his familiar, strong, cheerful Daddy-voice. While Daddy's broken leg heals, Andrew and his family learn about God's care, their church family's love, and about being patient and kind. Book 1.

More Trouble Than Trouble Creek

Illustrated by Kristina Yoder and Alex Brover
Splash! Andrew sucked in his breath at the shock of cold water. It wasn't deep, but it was muddy. He scrambled up the bank, his sopping shoes slipping and skidding. He scowled at his sister. "Megan, this is all your fault!" Andrew and his siblings are having trouble getting along. They argue, call each other names, and avoid each other. Daddy and Mom have a solution, but can Andrew learn to show love to his brothers and sisters? Book 2.

The Missing Invitation

Illustrated by Taya Taranenko
Tears stung Megan's eyes. Why hadn't she received an invitation? It was just as she thought: the girls were leaving her out. They didn't want to be friends with her anymore. When a new family moves in with a girl her age, Megan hopes that Monica will be her own special friend. Megan learns that friendship, like other good gifts from God, brings the most satisfaction when it is freely shared. Book 3.

Christopher and the Move

Illustrated by Ruth Kuepfer
"Moving shouldn't be allowed," Christopher growls. Moving is hard work, and it doesn't help that Andrew teases Christopher about being lazy. Christopher misses their old house. He misses Trouble Creek and romping in the woods. Christopher feels sorry for Great-Grandma when she must move too. Will the new place ever feel like home? Will Great-Grandma adjust to living in a nursing home? How will Christopher overcome his reputation for being work-shy? Book 4.

Dolly the Milk Cow

Every afternoon, old Dolly faithfully led the other cows to the barn for milking. When Farmer Don was out in the fields and saw Dolly leading the herd in from the pasture, he knew that four o'clock milking time had come. He could practically set his watch by Dolly. Then one winter day, Dolly slipped and fell on the ice. Would she be brave enough to trust Farmer Don and lead the herd home as usual? Illustrated with fine watercolor paintings.

Danny the Workhorse

When Farmer Don called the horses in for oats in the morning, Danny would stay in the far corner of the pasture. When Farmer Don put Danny's harness across his back, Danny would pretend to be terribly sick. Farmer Don and Missus Dora were worried. How would Farmer Don get all the work done if Danny refused to help? Then some oatmeal cookies gave Missus Dora an idea, and Danny learned a valuable lesson. Illustrated with fine watercolor paintings.

Shadow the Barn Cat

Shadow was a shy cat, but she was also brave and diligent. When Farmer Don ruined her perfect hiding place in a tunnel under the hay, she didn't give up. Shadow searched and searched for a new spot. It had to be snug and warm, safe and hidden, and dark and quiet, just right for keeping her secret safe. Finally, she found it under Danny's oat box. Only Danny knew her secret, and he wouldn't tell. Illustrated with fine watercolor paintings.

Snoopy the Sheep

Snoopy's new home was cozy and safe. But Snoopy was not content. She missed her old home where she had the freedom to roam where she pleased. Snoopy began to search for things to make her happy. Every loose spot in the fence became her way to escape so she could gorge on the cow's grain or dine on Missus Dora's flower beds. Then one afternoon she wandered up the hillside alone and found herself in big trouble. Illustrated with fine watercolor paintings.

Grandpa John's Lost Bible

Richard Martin, illustrated by the author

Some people keep the pages of their Bibles clean and white. Not Grandpa John. His beloved Bible is sprinkled with circles and notes. When it disappears on the way home from church one evening, he knows he will never be able to buy another one like it. Grandpa John prays his Bible will be found. His friends pray too, but they think, Grandpa John's Bible is gone for good. Grandpa John gives up hope, but Grandma Julia says, "Let's keep praying." A true story of God's providence with winsome charcoal drawings on every page.

Illustrated Bible Stories

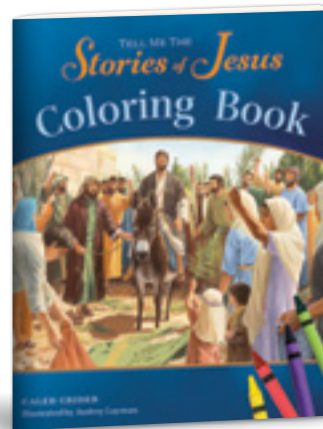

Tell Me the Stories of Jesus

Caleb Crider, illustrated by Alex Brover

This hardcover Bible storybook is a beautiful way to help children learn to love Jesus. The seventy stories from the life of Jesus—each illustrated with a full-color oil painting—are designed to be read aloud to children. Each story includes three questions that promote interaction about the story. In a time when so many Bible storybooks include fictional details and cartoon-like pictures, Tell Me the Stories of Jesus has become a trusted family favorite. These simple stories and touching illustrations begin to form in children's minds the outlines of a picture that will be filled in as they grow—the picture of Jesus as a caring, understanding, and trustworthy Friend.

Fine Stories From the Past

The Arrowhead

Lucinda J. Miller, illustrated by Alex Brover

For many years an arrowhead lay hidden, buried in the soil of an Indiana farm. The Indian who had shot it was long forgotten. The generations of settlers who followed, chopping down trees and planting corn, never found it. Decades passed, and other families who worked the land never found it either. Then came Ted, praying and searching for an arrowhead like those his sisters had found. Will he find one? History comes alive through this story of an Indian brave, hardworking settlers, farm families, and a boy named Ted who longed to find an arrowhead of his own. Illustrated by fine watercolor paintings.

Overcoming Inferiority

Sara Nolt

Jenna, the older sister, was beautiful. Talented. Popular. Sara was the next born—the ordinary one. She was simply known as “Jenna’s sister,” without an identity of her own. Sara became all too familiar with inferiority, the pain of believing she was worthless. But she found victory and wants others—especially young women—to find it too.

Accepted in Jesus

We hurt when we are excluded, especially when it involves our family, close friends, or church. Rejection has driven many people to become rebellious, controlling, intemperate, or obsessed with performance. But being rejected does not need to doom us to misery and bitterness. Accepted in Jesus points the way to a life centered on Jesus. In Jesus we are delivered from self and anointed with His vitality, which flows into our relationships, making us people of love, joy, and peace.

Where Is Lazarus?

In America we can live an entire lifetime without seeing extreme poverty, real hunger, or dogs licking open wounds. With the needs out of sight, we forget the millions of Lazaruses in our world. It is easy to compare our lives to our affluent neighbors and make decisions based on our prosperous friends. But how would it affect our choices if extreme poverty were just outside our door? How close do we get to people with real needs?

Surviving the Tech Tsunami

Internet-based technology is taking our culture by storm, profoundly impacting our occupations, families, personal lives, and church life. Gary Miller describes the cultural upheaval underway, shares his findings after interviewing young people and pastors, and defines the issues at stake so you can equip your family and church to weather the tech tsunami.

Jesus Really Said That?

Jeremy and Alicia enjoy attending Lakeside Believers Fellowship. The sermons are gripping, the programs exciting, and the worship team is second to none. Without question, Lakeside is the place to be! But there is one problem: Jeremy and Alicia have never paid much attention to what Jesus actually taught. Follow along as Jeremy and Alicia begin to take a closer look at Jesus' teachings.

Living Out the Gospel

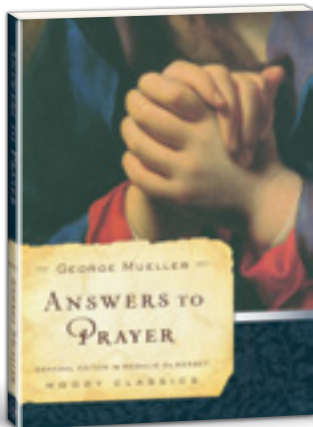

Walking the Talk

Arvin Martin

Inspired by the author's work in prison ministry, Walking the Talk identifies areas often overlooked and ignored by nominal Christianity, while pointing to the truth that Jesus came to deliver from sin and to empower us by the Spirit to live victoriously. Each chapter closes with questions for study and discussion. Useful for group studies and outreach.

Answers to Prayer

George Mueller

We know God hears and answers prayer. But how many of us have launched out in faith as George Mueller did? He began several orphans' homes, depending entirely on God to supply their needs. Mueller asked no one for money, but made his needs known to God.

Beechdale Road

Megan Shertzer & Tim Rogers

In June 2020, an eighteen-year-old Amish woman from Bird-in-Hand, Pennsylvania, was kidnapped and murdered by Justo Smoker. This book, written by members of Justo's family, tells how they grappled with grief, anger, and pain, and how the Amish community related to them with kindness and mercy. It is a story of hope and healing amid tragedy.

Thy Kingdom Come!

Matt Drayer

An amazing thing happens when sinners repent and are forgiven—Heaven starts right here on earth in believers' hearts. They worship together and serve and bless each other. Their lives change. They become more heavenly. When they die, God welcomes them into Heaven.

Thy Kingdom Come! shows the sinner how to be saved, challenges the believer to become more like Jesus, and calls all of us to be part of the bright spots of heavenly living on earth, part of the kingdom of Heaven.

Comfort for Troubled Christians

J. C. Brumfield

"And he shall sit as a refiner and purifier of silver... and purge them as gold and silver." God's children can be joyous and victorious even in the midst of the fire of trial and suffering. An encouraging book for all Christians, this book explains God's part and purpose in testing and offers a pattern for success to all Christians who are "passing through the fire."

Where Has Integrity Gone?

Simon Schrock

Some say that it is okay or necessary to lie occasionally. Some even say that you can lie and still retain your integrity. This book speaks directly to these assertions from a Scriptural perspective. God wants to be represented by men and women of integrity. Is dishonesty just a clever way to get ahead, or will it lead to a bitter harvest for our society?

The Fruit of the Spirit

David G. Burkholder

"Ye shall know them by their fruits," Jesus said. This timeless principle is obvious in nature—a tree is identified by the fruit it bears. Spirit fruit can be identified as well. This hardcover study guide takes each fruit of the Spirit and explores its characteristics, using several chapters to do so. Study questions are listed at the end of each chapter to facilitate group discussion.

I Will Build My Church

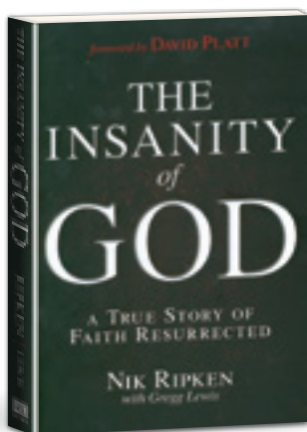

Reaching America

Gary Miller

Why are so few of our neighbors joining our Anabaptist churches? Are we not reaching out to them with the Gospel, or are they becoming increasingly indifferent? Does the problem lie with us or with them? The author reviews calls received by Christian Aid Ministries' Billboard Evangelism program and emphasizes how we can use our homes to share the Gospel in these last days.

God's Glory in the Church

John Coblenz

Ephesians contains the most extensive and sublime teaching on the church in the New Testament. The Father is making His people His sacred dwelling, shaping each believer according to His perfect blueprint and placing them alongside brothers and sisters in Jesus. My Brother's Keeper

Nathan Zook

We believe all humans are one extended family descended from Adam and Eve. Yet we may have difficulty seeing a family resemblance or feeling a blood kinship with people from other nationalities or ethnicities. My Brother's Keeper discusses the history of race relations, looks at how Mennonites have responded to racial diversity in the past, and suggests Biblical responses to issues such as interracial marriage, transracial adoptions, race-based privilege, and political correctness.

Evangelism and Missions

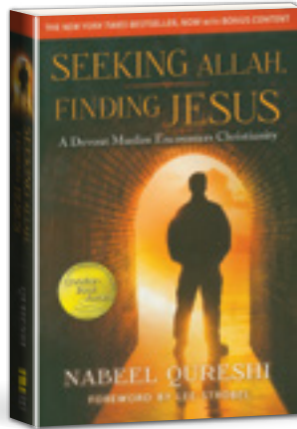

Awake, O Church!

Barry Grant

Drawing from experiences as a missionary in Haiti, the author emphasizes that mankind's greatest need is not humanitarian help, but Jesus. Humanitarian aid has a place in Christian outreach, but not at the expense of Jesus. This book helps us realize how missions can inadvertently harm rather than help, and stirs us to follow Jesus more faithfully. Prayerfully reflecting on this book's message can help us set priorities that will make our mission efforts, whether across the street or across the ocean, more effective in meeting spiritual needs.

Plain Speaking

David Bercot
The New Testament Christians had no seminaries, but they raised up effective preachers and teachers. The Holy Spirit can use ordinary Christian men today to preach and teach—just as He did back in the first century. Written specifically for nonseminary-trained laymen and ordained leaders, Plain Speaking presents the steps to developing and delivering effective sermons and devotional messages.

To Be or Not to Be Plain?

John D. Martin
For many years, Anabaptist groups embodied their beliefs and values in distinctive cultural norms. This booklet examines the claim that these “man-made rules” militate against a genuine personal experience with Christ. It answers questions like these: Has God ever endorsed “man-made rules”? Do distinctive cultural norms violate the Gospel? Does relaxing distinctive cultural norms lead to greater evangelistic success?

Becoming Fishers of Men

Allen Roth
A Thirteen-Week Journey Toward a Lifestyle of Faithful Witnessing
There's a maxim that says 10 percent of fishermen catch 90 percent of the fish. When it comes to fishing for men, too often the 10/90 rule is disappointingly accurate. Using Scripture, class discussion, and simple field assignments, this course deals with obstacles such as fear and inexperience to help believers become effective witnesses.

Reaching Across Cultures

Conversational English for Second-Language Learners

This course is a three-level series (Levels A, B, and C) for teaching conversational English to international learners. Each level contains forty lessons for a total of 120 lessons. Lessons include vocabulary and sentence structures that students practice in class and then use in daily life. The Teacher's Guide provides step-by-step teaching instructions, activities, and games to simulate real-life contexts. Flash cards include a picture and accompanying label.

The Teacher's Guide is required. Lessons are designed for ages 11-16, but the Teacher's Guide provides activities to adapt lessons for a range of class lengths, styles, and ages. This course is not just about learning English—it helps teachers and students build relationships around conversation. Contact us for other options in international or mission settings.

Sacrifice or Penalty?

Keith Crider

Does it matter how we describe Christ's sacrifice on the cross? The Bible does give clear teaching on what Jesus did for us on the cross. However, when talking about His death, we may sometimes repeat statements that have implications we have not considered. This in-depth study of the Scriptures exposes some of the false ideas about salvation permeating churches today, and calls us back to a simple New Testament understanding of atonement through Christ's sacrifice.

Church History, Vol. 1

From Resurrection to Reformation

Keith Crider

The history of the church is a history of real people—popes and priests, monks and martyrs, and many ordinary folks like us. All claimed to follow Christ, but not all had the same understanding of what it meant to be Christian. This account of the church up to the beginning of the Anabaptist movement helps us understand how the church grew and changed over the centuries. It inspires us to faithfulness to Christ and His teaching in our day.

Church History, Vol. 2

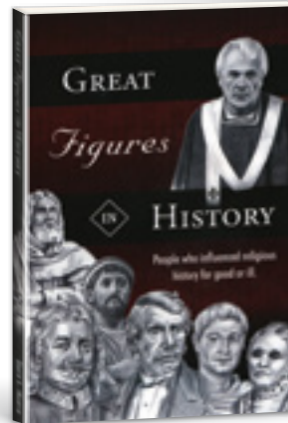

From Reformation to the 21st Century

Keith Crider

What happened to the church after the Reformation in the early 1500s? Over the centuries, European explorers, merchants, and missionaries spread Christianity to Africa, Asia, and the Americas. Too often, the Christianity they promoted had more to do with culture and coercion than with conversion and commitment to Christ. From monasteries to missionaries, from Martin Luther to D.L. Moody, from Moravians to the Moral Majority, from Methodists to Mennonites, you can read about them all in this second volume of Church History.

Bible School Curriculum

Bible Journey Series

is a complete curriculum designed for use in a wide range of Bible school and outreach situations. The stories and activities engage children whether or not they are regular church attendees, and every lesson contains a worthwhile application to each child's life. The helpful Teacher's Guides include reproductions of the student pages with answers. Grade level designations are only suggestions since books can be used for other grades as well. The curriculum covers K 1-3, Grades 1-8, and High School. Kindergarten levels are the same level of difficulty and are interchangeable. See page 88 for adult class study options.

Kindergarten 1

Our God Is Awesome

Our God can do anything! He is truly awesome! Bible stories of God's protecting strength and caring love make this truth come alive for young children. Four of the ten lessons are from the Old Testament; the other six feature Jesus. Children will enjoy the full-color pictures, age-level exercises, and simple crafts. Teacher's Material includes posters.

223010 Pupil $6.25

224010 Teacher $12.45

Kindergarten 2

Bible Heroes

Thrill children's hearts with stories of Bible heroes—Noah, Joseph, David, Esther, Daniel, and more—and amaze them with the great God who cares for us too. Eight lessons cover Old Testament characters; two lessons are about Jesus. Colorful pictures and simple crafts engage young children. Teacher's Material includes posters.

223020 Pupil $6.25

222102 Free Records info for 21 students

Kindergarten 3

Jesus, My Friend

Jesus was nearly always surrounded by people, and He loved them all. Young children will come to love Jesus as they watch His interactions with others—healing a sick man, telling a story, visiting with friends, eating at Zacchaeus's house, and forgiving an unfaithful follower. Teacher's Material includes posters.

223030 Pupil $6.25

224030 Teacher $12.45

Grade 1

Stories From Genesis and Job

Stories every child should know—the Creation and Noah's ark and other highlights from Genesis, including stories of Abraham and Joseph. Ends with a lesson on Job. Simple exercises and colorful pictures make this an effective course for teaching young children. Teacher's Material includes posters.

222001 $0.85

Grade 2

Journey to the Promised Land

On the tiresome trek from Egypt to Canaan, Moses and the Israelites encountered many opportunities to trust God and experience His goodness. Students can learn much from what God taught His people. Includes the Ten Commandments.

223102 Pupil $5.75

224102 Teacher $6.95

Grade 3

The Wonderful Jesus

Who was Jesus? What did He do? Why does it matter? Introduce children to Jesus—the most important person they will ever meet. Exercises take students beyond the facts of Jesus' life to apply His teachings to their young lives.

223103 Pupil $5.75

224103 Teacher $6.95

Grade 4

Stories of Joshua, Judges, and Kings

From Joshua to Ruth to Solomon, from Achan to Samson to King Saul, the lives of dynamic characters in Israel are compelling examples (and warnings!) to students today. In those times God strengthened the wavering, rewarded stalwart faith, and punished hidden sin—and He still does today.

223104 Pupil $5.75

224104 Teacher $6.95

Grade 5

Kings and Prophets

What happens when we trust and obey God? What happens when we don't? Students learn from Old Testament kings and prophets whose lives answer these questions for us. Lessons cover Elijah, Elisha, Jonah, Hezekiah, Jeremiah, Daniel and his three friends, Esther, and Nehemiah.

223105 Pupil $5.75

224105 Teacher $6.95

Grade 6

Jesus Our Teacher

In addition to telling stories of Jesus' life on earth, this study examines and explains His teachings and parables, including those on the kingdom of Heaven, in a way that students can understand. Exercises encourage students to apply the Bible to their lives.

223106 Pupil $5.75

224106 Teacher $6.95

Grade 7

Adventures of the Early Church

The first half of the Book of Acts covers an amazing time of vibrant growth in the church as the Holy Spirit arrived and empowered new Christians. Students observe and learn as the church suffers, prays, shares, cares, and witnesses. Begins with an overview of Jesus' life and ends with Paul's first missionary journey.

223107 Pupil $5.75

224107 Teacher $6.95

Grade 8

Paul Spreads the Good News

Mobs, beatings, bonfires, and an earthquake—these were all part of Paul's unpredictable life. Traveling from city to city, this bold, intelligent preacher introduced multitudes to the Gospel and influenced many others through his letters. This study covers Paul's second missionary journey and ends with his incarceration in Rome.

223108 Pupil $5.75

224108 Teacher $6.95

High School

Letters to Christians

The ten lessons in this course introduce the writers and the readers of the New Testament epistles from 1 Timothy to Revelation, provide readings and exercises from Scripture, and show how they apply to teenagers today.

223109 Pupil $5.75

224109 Teacher $6.95
